

BAUMHEIER CONFERENCE

CREATING SOCIAL HEALTH: STRENGTHENING DEMOCRACY AT ITS ROOTS

Virginia Solomón

Gerald Häfner

- How can social threefolding reduce the polarization of our time?
- What steps can we as citizens take to strengthen democracy?
 - What can we learn from prior times of similar upheaval?

Sunday, December 7, 2025

1-4 pm, Eastern Time / 10am-1pm, Pacific Time / 19:00-22:00 Central European Time

Virginia Solomón has devoted her career to fighting for social justice and civil rights. She is the President and CEO of Common Cause, a nonpartisan, grassroots organization dedicated to upholding the core values of American democracy.

Gerald Häfner is the leader of the Social Sciences Section at the Goetheanum, former member of the German and European Parliaments, and cofounder of the Green Party in Bavaria as well as of More Democracy, an international advocacy organization.

The panel will be followed by small group conversations and a dialogue with the speakers.

This conference is in loving memory of Edward Baumheier who, at age 87, discovered and became a passionate advocate for social threefolding. At his request, he was cremated holding a copy of Rudolf Steiner's lectures published as The Social Future.
